I know I know. Revolut was a) my mid-point to DRS. 2) my those looseables are to sell.

I was waiting till after split to drs in one go.

Now on Friday had x.xx GME shares. That where supposed to turn into xx.xx shares. They didn't. Spoke with the team. Wait. Blah blah long story still nada.

So: any other apes in this mess.

1) go and generate every single trading related report/statement you can find. There's both pdf and xcl files. Both are crucial!

Save any chat (button to email transcripts).

Record your screen starting with time/date (lockscreen). Then transactions to show any user-interface visible trades.

Be able to prove your before/after position.

If this doesn't get resolved, I'm heading to the Ombudsman and FCA. -< I don't know the legal implications of this post I am not a lawyer. Just a British citizen.

If there are others like me. Saving your own reports/statements might prove useful.
