I'm not a tinfoil hat kinda ape, and I might get removed for this, but thought I'd throw this out there. With all the talk about options lately, could 7-4-1 refer to the last digits of January's options expiration dates?

Jan 7

Jan 21

GME's big runup last year was on Jan 28, and our squeeze-aversary coming up happens to land on Fri, Jan 28, another options expiration date. Could mean something, could mean nothing. Just thought I'd share.

Gonna go eat some bananas now.
