Call your broker.. breath heavy, and they will know what to do.

Direct registration in your name through the transfer agent of a company - in this case Computershare.

If you are interested, just call your broker and tell them. Depending on the country, some brokers will push you back. There's a few subs about GME who will be able to help you.

I called fidelity on Friday to DRS mine. The guy told me they are getting a ton of calls requesting this right now. Guy knew exactly what to do and was very helpful.
