Hi, guys.

I am Korean & I am living in the Netherlands now.

I have few Korean Diamond apes friends who tried to DRS but with Korean law, buying share directly is illegal (ya..they can only purchase US stock through Brokers, sucks..right?!)

So he is trying to go to other country to purchase shares through 'give a share'.

I was thinking, "wait a minute! I can buy shares from 'give a share' from Europe. So how about I buy the share with his name & send the share to him? "

So I am trying to buy GME share and send it to him.

What I wanna know is that,

1. Can I purchase shares with other person's name and details? Well, it is a gift so I should able to do it, right?!

2. He told me there is a option when you purchase share from them and you need to op for DRS. Does anyone know how to do it?

3. I have a Computershare account (I drs some shares through IBKR). I remember there was a option that I could give a share as gift (I could be wrong). If possible, can I buy share as gifts from Computershare and send them to my friend?

4.Can I buy share directly with Computershare from Europe (I am not US citizen) ?

I hope someone can help us so that our Korean Ape could DRS shares too.

Thank you ■
