As the title says, I'd like to know if this is a possibility. I've fallen to tough times and plan on selling a couple of shares after the splividend. I plan to buy a lot more shares in the future though. I know this isn't advised but I really don't have a choice. Anyways, I overheard others talking about a potentially paired NFT Dividend to go along with the regular Splividend. If true big, but if not, is there a scenario where GameStop distributes a sort of NFT Dividend shortly after??
