Fuck certain market makers and all the big banks who think they are too big to fail. I hope they all get exposed Madoff style and kill themselves.

We're in a Great Depression whether we know it or not. The fact is these crooks actions drive many innocent hard workers to lose it all and feel no way out but suicide.

This is a war against classes. How did Madoff get caught and arrested and these criminals are still stealing from the masses.

Fuck this system. Fuck this country. It all stands for corruption and crime. I'm surprised no one has had the balls to actually do something about this.

One office goes bankrupt and they open a new one. These criminals belong in the dirt. I will spit and take a shit on their grave and then laugh.

Wonder what dirt these people have on eachother to leverage them into loaning all this money when they know it's just going in the trash.

I can't wait to hear a certain someone was found somewhere covered in mayo and fecal matter.

Fuck all the gme shorts. I hope they all die
