Did you know GameStop sells 985 items in their "Board Games" category?! All competitively priced. And this is just 1 of 10 subcategories of "Toys and Games"!

They sell tons of your classic jigsaw puzzles. These make great gifts for the people in your life that have time on their hands, especially those who need to keep their aging brains active.

They also sell quite a selection of 3-D puzzles, brain teasers, and different versions of Rubik's Cubes.

Pretty cool 3D Pirate Ship for $13.89.

Don't forget, power up rewards membership. It's only $20. It gives you $5 savings instantly to plus $5 coupons once a month for the next 12 months!

From u/pigglybiggly: Just piggybacking to add that the pro membership gives points when you purchase items and those can equal nice discounts.

I got a $20 game for $0.00 yesterday using my $5 reward and cashing in points for $15.
