I have been getting so many signs at this point I can't tell how many are confirmation bias and how many are true and mystical prophecies of a glorious banana filled future. I won't share most for sake of spoiling secrets but I will share this one cause it wobbled my head a bit...

I was watching the Truman show and I felt like the scene where Truman talks about a bonus coming soon was a wink - (this was probably a huge mind-stretch)

But then a little while afterwards I went looking at properties online pretending I had $1,000,000 for a home (I never thought I would ever even be able to afford to rent an apartment) and the first two houses I found for sale were on

So simulation confirmed? - see you all on the Moon? I'll be dancing so let's have a dance party.

Don't forget to give back to your communities and be a good human. Let's try and save the Amazon rainforest if we could.....that'd be great. Restore people's eyesight. SEVA is a good charity. Help friends and family. Live our wildest dreams. Plant some gardens. Or just buy Lambo's I guess?

I feel like this GME situation is a battle of Good vs. Evil. We must win for the sake of the future of humanity. If that's not true at all it's still a great attitude to attack this with...

The balance has needed to change for far too long. Keep in mind I eat brown crayon wrappers exclusively off of wet tables. It's not fair myself and most of my friends can't even afford to house ourselves nowadays. It's outrageous. I'm HODLING 4 all u crazy apeies.

TO THE MOON.
