So previously I'd filed a complaint with the FCA (UK market regulator) regarding the DTCC's actions over the GME share dividend, and they confirmed that it was coded as a split. I've now filed a complaint with the same information in to the IC3 centre in the US (Internet Crime Complaint Centre) with the relevant emails and information attached.

Summary: I was defrauded by the DTCC though them coding the dividend as a split. It's not likely to be the straw that breaks the camel's back, but is at least a straw. If others can file complaints too, either ti the FBI or the IC3, then it'll all help. I chose the IC3 because in the UK, it's more an internet crime than anything else.....
