Gme has been very volatile for 2 years, there are peaks and dips all the time... SHF's knows were are strong together , kenny was doing his show, but now they no longer have the margin to really bring down a peak of new investors, they throw their last ammunition from the split ONLY to maintain the price at + or - 1 dollar variation !!! They don't even have the means to take care of the movie stock at the same time, victory is near! Kenny should have accepted the rules from the start, he will end up auditioning before the congress!

Hooga boogah! Monkeys hold on! Have a nice day all ;)
