I transferred to Fidelity from TeeDeeA bc they were taking FOREVER to DRS my GME stonks. I had no idea my account would be shut down completely and I wouldn't have access to it. I didn't download my statements or cost basis or anything and I thought there was no way to get it. I asked a few times in the various subs but no one knew what to do, kinda thought I was fukd.

Today I called them to see if I could get my tax info and they gave me 7 days of temporary access and I was able to get my cost basis as well.

Was happy to find out that I'm not fukd, only hedgies are and wanted to post in case any other smooth brain apes are in the same situation.
