Lots of buzz around this Loopring L2 NFT.

I'm a little too drunk to fully validate everything tonight, but I figure I'll get ahead of things and acknowledge that this is looking very strong. Might just be the verifiable proof I've been holding out for. What really sells me on it is that the minting address (0xaf89f1...) is listed as an owner of the gnosis safe (0x1b16ee...) which received the GameStop NFT minted from the 0x1337420.. contract.

You can view the list of owners for the safe under getOwners:

I'll validate further tomorrow, but unless I can find some kind of fuckery, looks like I'll be making that donation in Superstonk's name to Child's Play. About time, right?
