So today I threw down a tiny YOLO after seeing the SI on XRT at ~1300%.

I bought 4x Feb 18c's at 92 strike. Premium was like $.04 each, so about $20 after Etrade clipped me for the broker fee.

At market close, XRT had gone up a buck or so and they were looking better...about $36 off of my $20. Cool.

I refreshed ETrade just now and they are showing at .06 last price, but gain is 2,208.87% and value of $430.00.

Looking at the options chain on Barchart, the Asks are all over the place, up and down the chain.

Bug or one of the Greeks? Anyone have a guess?
