We are all aware of what you are trying to do here.

I know it.

You know it.

Rick knows it.

You're just doing what you always do. Buying time and using psyops to get your way.

Being a bully has always worked before.

Demoralizing and scaring retail is literally a huge part of your business model.

But you have a problem.

It's not working this time.

And it's not going to work.

So here's the best thing you can do...

Be first.

That's it. That's the best case scenario for you. Just be first.

We all know that Jan 21 put expiration is going to expose your GME short position.

In that one moment, all the DD is confirmed and FOMO is coming in hard.

I wouldn't want to roll those dice against every other fund fighting for its life.

Be first.

We all saw what Goldman did when Archegos blew up, while the rest of you were working on a plan with each other to try and figure a way out, Goldman moved first and liquidated it's bags. Wasn't good for anyone else holding those bags. Credit Suisse closed its fund after Reporting a $5bil loss (probably closer to $10bil though)

Maybe you think tax season will cause some selling? Nah I already opted to take the October filing extension.

You can still be the smartest guys in the room.

Just be first.
