Following GME statement about the brokers' and DTC's split-dividend fiasco, our beloved chairman tweeted this:

<https://twitter.com/RyanCohen/status/1555676193071935489>

It is, as many of you immediately have recognized, a quote of the famous speech by president J.F. Kennedy for his January 20, 1961 Inaugural Address:

<https://www.ushistory.org/documents/ask-not.htm>

Here's the part RC is referencing

>And so, my fellow Americans: ask not what your country can do for you — ask what you can do for your country.

>

>My fellow citizens of the world: ask not what America will do for you, but what together we can do for the freedom of man.

>

>Finally, whether you are citizens of America or citizens of the world, ask of us the same high standards of strength and sacrifice which we ask of you. With a good conscience our only sure reward, with history the final judge of our deeds, let us go forth to lead the land we love, asking His blessing and His help, but knowing that here on earth God's work must truly be our own.

The speech was given during his presidency's inauguration, which happened on January 20: another funny coincidence, as Jan 20 could arguably be seen as the start of the sneeze.

As you can see (emphasis mine), it does not only refer to Americans, but also to fellow citizens of the world, for the (not only financial!) freedom of the world. In light of the recent events, it is a call for all apes to do their part.

Buy, hold, DRS and report to regulators.

And you know where JFK took us, right?
