So I decided not to wait for payday and just buy 1 share of todays dip. Then I wanted to take that energy and drs. I made the call to drs all of my remaining short shares, leaving 10 longs.

My question is how is voting handled in this instance? I know that fudality was looking to have the docs out next week, but I'm expecting the shares to show up in my Computershare account Friday or Monday. Should I be able to vote then, or will I be waiting for fudality to send docs associated w those shares?
