I see that CS is very popular amongst GME buyers. I'm well aware of RH's fuckery and was caught in their BS early on. My question is why is CS so popular for this stock vs. a traditional big brokerage firm?

I'm looking to start stonking and am just looking for info on why people are veering towards CS.

I have a portfolio with a large brokerage firm. Is CS good for specific reasons specific to GME? Meaning, keep my holdings where they're doing well at another well-known brokerage, but don't buy GME there and buy them at CS?
