I've DRS'd all of my GME from my brokerage, but I have 350 more across a Traditional and Roth IRA. I know there was a lot of discussion 6 months ago over on the Stonk channel about how to do an "In Kind Direct transfer", but I was waiting to let you other apes grease the skids first. But I have not really heard much chatter from anyone since. The only person I know that tried it has had some difficulty getting it setup. So I'm looking for any first hand reports of those who tried to DRS IRA shares. I have a feeling there a LOT of people in my boat that have a LOT more shares to pull out of the pool.
