So this has annoyed me..

I work hard for my own money.. I save my own money.. I'm in 0 debt.. I invest my OWN money..

Yet i receive a message from my bank that I can no longer invest my own money into Cryptocurrency as it's against their terms and conditions?

Sorry but when was my own money their concern? Because they can't invest it themselves and make money on my money?

It's ridiculous, we under so much control from people high in power. It's time the tables turned and we make our own decisions and be our own banks.

This is just a snippet of how people in high power have us all under their thumbs. It's time for change. And I will still find a way of investing every extra money I have into Loopring.

BYOB. Rant over. Thanks.
