With all the distractions and FUDs that the towel stock had created, I wanted to see if we can go back to our own banana tree and do our own things instead of wildly flinging all those unwanted excrements around.

A couple of weeks ago I posted how my broker confirmed that they did provide me with the stock dividend for my GME shares. Of course, their "trust me bro" reply was not sufficient for me to take at face value because I've been chewing on too many crayons. So some wrinkle brain told me to make some noise and ask them to provide more evidence. That was what I did.

Finally, my broker provided me with the corporate action notice that they received from CDS (my broker is Canadian). Since I ate too many crayons, I don't know how to interpret this notice, I'll just post the corporate action here for the wrinkle brain to ELIA5. So the question is, did I get a dividend based on this notice?

To go further, I'll bought a couple of TSLA shares this morning to see how the dividend will be processed. So stay tuned....
