He was flying over the see, attracting all garbage in the ocean and transforming it into metal, wood and energy that shaped the titanic.

The ship arrived to New York, with all
Passengers on board.

Hidden in the ship was a chest,
With the secret of the universe.

Anyone who uses it shall do it with love for me, for the universe, for Mother Earth and yourself in equal matters.

The One who fails this order and try to cheat will see it's life bar reduced. Repent and I shall give you an extra life free. But this time there's no armour, cheat again and you'll take double hits. If the third one is not the right one for you, watch out for the black hole on the next turn. You God is restoring balance.
