Welcome to 100+ days of ~~summer~~ broker guides!

It's clear that everyone, even GameStop fanatics, are finding and learning about Direct Registration and the DRS at different speeds. So I'm hoping this series of posts helps to raise more awareness that it is possible, and it's even easier than it was at the start of 2022!

If you're looking for a guide for your broker, check out the website and you'll find 109 guides (hopefully you're broker is one of them!). If you can't find your broker guide, let me know and I'll see what I can dig up!

Day 11, Guide 11: Capital.com

<https://www.drsgme.org/drs/direct-register-shares-from-capital-com>

Capital.com is an international broker that cannot transfer in any way. So they have your assets locked into their system.

It's shocking that a broker can allow you to invest in a company without any real rights to those shares. If this angers you, I would send them a complaint or suggestion that they should allow transfers.

Until then your options are laid out in the guide for you to draw your own conclusions from. None of it is financial advice.
