Ok so first I want to say.. I'm crazy and I read into shit.. I eat crayons ■ and have the smoothest brain ■ .. I lost 800k playing options.. then sold my can am, my s2000, my Tesla, and my house to double down on #gme .. since then all the speculations have come true. Loopring, NFT marketplace, and immutable.. the latest theory is a partnership or merger with Apple ■. So here are the clues I have.. based on Ryan twitter..
1. Apple doesn't fall far from the tree.. 2. You know what happens when I have too much fruit. (You get the runs up*) 3. Ryan Cohen by day warren Icahn by night.. (warren buffet and Carl Icahn both moved apples market cap by billions with announcement of them having shares also Icahn specifically did it using twitter) last but not least 4. he just posted a Forrest Gump quote.. Forrest Gump invested in a fruit company and never had to worry about money again.
