I've asked deigro for custodian letter of my GME shares and this is their response:

`Szanowny Panie XXXXXXXXXXXX,`

`Thank you for your email.`

`The closest document we can provide to a 'custodian letter' is a UBO.`

`In order to request a UBO certificate, please reply to this email confirming the following:`

`Name of the company the certificate is for`

`Acceptance of the 5.00 EUR fees.`

`Once we have issued your certificate, the fees will be booked out of your DEGIRO account.`

`Kind regards,`

`Zachary`

Does anyone know if this helps at all?

edit: or shouldn't bother?
