Theory: Citadel is shorting all 50 stocks RH restricted, and therefore the market, and will try to hold on for one last stand

Discussion

Citadel and co. restricted AMC and GME buying on RH in order to make a quick buck covering their losses by buying shorts immediately before the crash on Thursday. That much is true.

And now we have 50 stocks with restricted buying, and SPY is down significantly.

My theory? They're shorting all 50 stocks, therefore the market, and will use that to try to hold on for perhaps as long as one more week before it's all over.

This could be the final stand.

Absolutely the dumbest shit ever. One fucking search shows that Citadel is only allowed to open long positions. Put your WSB kool aid aside and read a book.
