Will this have anything to do with GME

Credit Suisse asks investors to DESTROY oligarch documents (FT)

Hedge funds and investors have been urged by Credit Suisse to “destroy and permanently erase” any documents relating to loans backed by oligarch assets after a massive recent data leak, according to an FT expose.

One example included a slide from the investor presentation that apparently showed a third of defaults on yacht and aircraft loans in 2017 and 2018 were “related to US sanctions against Russian oligarchs”.

The Swiss bank’s request comes after it was hit by a leak exposing details of over 30,000 accounts.
