We've admittedly often been pretty bad at figuring out the pieces of information that RC may have been leaving.

If you google "***741 CFTC**" you are brought to obscure and seemingly unique page .

Clicking on that page here (third from the top) brings you to a set of links which has a list of regulations, amendments and files. Many other numbers I've tried than **741** within the "taxonomy/term" of the CFTC don't seem to work.

Only the number **741** which brings you to a page citing Regulation 39.13(g)(8)(ii) and it's amendments. Which had a compliance date of **January 27th,** 2021. I also have NO IDEA why the number 741 brings you to this page, as that particular number is not present whatsoever.

From what I can tell these amendments to do with high risks / high margin risks.

I realize it might not be much to go on, but if it is a piece of the puzzle I wanted to communicate it.

Edit: It may be the term FCM (Futures Commission Merchant) may be tied to the number 741 within the CFTC database.
