Hi beautiful apettes and apes,

most of you know us by now, we, the team of WWW.DRSGME.ORG have set ourselves the goal to make DRS known beyond the borders of Reddit and to cause a revolution in finance. It's been just under 3 months since we went online. Those who know us have surely witnessed how we have been working hard every day since then to make the site more comfortable, more user-friendly and also more useful for everyone.

It has been admittedly very difficult for the team in the last few days as we have to deal with hate messages, threats and insults on a daily basis. We are ridiculed and accused of being crooks and rip-offs to top it off.

We understand that it is very difficult to earn the respect and trust of the community. We are confronted with corruption and crime on a daily basis here in this sub. But we have nothing like that in mind.

We have always said that we have full transparency about the fundraising campaign. Why don't you visit our sub page and click on the "Campaign Progress" button to get details about the payouts of the donation page, the planned campaign and keywords etc?

Our 2 marketers, u/Keichavik and u/pmxller are full professionals and make their money from these topics. We are always ready to discuss with you at eye level and with proper manners. We will not comment on hate comments or stupid taunts. Feedback is always welcome, we would like to keep you updated on the status of the campaign in the coming days.

Allow me a personal note on the side:

I've learned a lot along the way, I've made friends, and I can't wait to visit them in real life. We are a team of independent and self-thinking GME investors who work as a team of designers, writers, project managers and much more. All of us do not earn a cent from this project. We do this in our spare time, so sometimes we may not respond immediately. Please understand that. I would also like to thank the moderators who treated us fairly and are friendly. We have been in exchange with the mods for some time and we also know that our posts are sometimes discussed very controversially - I ask you all to be friendly and fair with each other. We may be apes, but we should be civil to each other.

So yeah, check out our Campaign Progress and let us know, if you have any questions.

PS: Sorry for my bad english (I heard enough jokes about that the last days, lol).

GME TO THE MOON ■
