Theory:

You're a large hedge fund short GME, naked shorting, manipulation etc. You are getting ready to get royally F*ked again by retail traders, you try to take them out via reddit, doesn't work as well as you'd hoped, you try to take them down via msm, doesn't work as well as you'd hoped, you now try to silence them on social media but how is the most effective way to silence them on social media?

By TANKING stocks of social media companies and threatening to continue doing it until they start blocking and banning the most vocal retail influencers that support the stocks you're short.

I could be wrong, I guess we'll see if they start tanking Faceboo... oh wait they did.... or maybe if they find the twitter founder Jack Dorsey and start tanking the thing he's most passionate about, his company Square... oh wait, they did that too.

I know Square(Block) is not Twitter, but he already stepped down as CEO of twitter, and they know he still has pull over there and can get whatever accounts silenced if he wants it, he even did it with the former president, so there's definitely precedence.

THE ENTIRE MARKET IS TANKING WITH LITTLE TO NO NEWS, AND THE EXCUSES MSM GIVES ARE FLIMSY AT BEST. THEY ARE LIQUIDATING THEIR ASSETS IN BLUE CHIP STOCKS FOR SOMETHING. BULLISH AF. ■■■■■■
