Let's have a fundamented discussion and leave emotions behind.

I was thinking, if I DRS 100% of my shares, I'll be selling through CS during MOASS and just returning my removed GME shares to the DTCC, making them able to short the fck out of GME again. If I leave some shares at my brokers, I'll be selling fake IOU's during MOASS and keep my real shares away from wall street and in the infinity pool.

Also, didn't DFV said, "keep one in the chamber"? He might be refering to this, what do you think?? In my opinion its better to keep some fake IOU's to sell at 7,8, 9 digits price at my brokers, than be selling through CS at the same floors and return my precious shares to the DTCC and end MOASS before it even kicks off.
