By the time Citadel changed course on crypto (Griffin was always against it) and begun to gameplan not just defense to RC nft plans, but an attack on crypto market, RC now throws another curveball that will require the most important thing in the world... TIME... now KG will have to dedicate TIME on how to solve this new and completely unforeseen attack. The walls are caving in on all fronts.. Russias situation, covid money consequences, bad bets, gme business model change, crypto take off, sec new filings, negative media attention, and now another company with a sharefloat that just doesnt make sense... I will give KG some credit, I wouldve had a heart attack by now. But then again.. dude is heartless so.. makes sense.

TLDR: RC genius, ape dumb dumb. Buy, hold, DRS. Hedgies bout to get wedgies. I like turtles.
