We know a few things for sure regardless of the tweets that get me excited to. One is that they shorted the fuck out of GME via synthetic shares. Two is that the quickest way to hide their bullshit games is to DRS our shares. Three is that it costs nothing to hold and if we are strong in our resolve to no longer have to wake up 9-5 just to take ourselves to a job that for most of us know is slowly sucking our souls.

Not sure about you apes but I for one am tired of my toxic boss, my rent that is more than a mortgage was just a few years ago, worrying about how I am going to leave my 2 yr old son anything in the shape of a good inheritance.

*Rant Part

I feel this is bigger than money. It's a chance to take some liberty back in a world that has come so far in the last 100 years yet fucked it up so badly that it's not off the table that in 50 years we'll see water wars, all while cooking in an oven with big money with their hand on the thermostat, mass automation and job loss. At this rate nobody is going to afford a home to hand to the next generation let alone say confidently they have a easier life than we did. The greedy pigs are sucking us dry and until it gets real bad (Like the French monarchs of old) people won't care and I think things are going in a bad way. This can play in our favor. We just need to buy,hold,DRS. It costs me nothing to hold. For a day. For a year. For 5 years. Eventually all the grains will be counted its just a matter of how long we can hold. I'm mad enough I am holding out of pure unadulterated hatred for these people. Buy another yacht go ahead. You'll need it for when the general public is hunting you down to take a piece of that liberty back from your hide. Just a matter of time.
