while the 'Monkeys' played follow the leader and DRS'd their shares the APES stood firm and continued to buy and hodl for the squeeze. When the MOASS at long last was upon them and the price rose to unbelievable heights monkeys could not sell more than $3,500 per day, while the APES sold their positions as they desired then proceeded to the bank to purchase all the "bananas" and other fruits of their labors for the rest of their days. The End
