I originally bought a single share and DRSed and have since bought and DRSed another batch and will more than likely continue doing so (international ape here from New Zealand) until I can log into my CS account.

Can I trust IBKR to get it right with multiple transfers of GME to CS without a CS number and just using the details I have supplied to IBKR? I assume I could end up with a letter for each batch and have to somehow get them consolidated which would mean calling them to sort out?

The dip is so tasty right now...
