So, following full registration with Computershare, I Started DRS-ing my GME. Procedure with my shitty dealer involved filling a PDF form and emailing it back to them.

Two days later I receive a request to remove value of shares from the form as this will be a market value (I used my average as in my account statement).

THOSE ASSHOLES DID NOT EVEN HAVE THOSE SHARES AND NEED TO BUY NOW! They did not even deny this when I suggested it in my return mail.

What a shitshow.
