As we all know, earnings usually means boring stream with just numbers. Companys never release anything spicy at earnings. But hopefully we gonna get it couple days after it.

Remeber don't expect anything then just numbers.

Whats jacking my tits a bit is the DRS numbers (if we get any) and if gme going profitable. But thats it.

And if they tank the price, remeber that usually happends after earnings. Be patience, we will go boom soon

Buckle up
