Retarded lurker here. Was looking at my account and noticed that some of my GameStop were listed as "non-covered". These were shares that I DRS'd IRA->individual->CS. Funny thing is that I also DRSd from my individual too at the same time but these are listed as covered. I certainly did not have an IRA pre-2011, and let alone GME shares.

What does this mean and what are the implications (tax)?

Also noticed that I can't order share certificates.
