I transferred my shares from Revolut to CS last week and they left my account on Friday. I've been trying to contact CS about the first letter to activate my account to access the shares. I've been hoping to get them to send it from the UK rather than US to get it ASAP. I am feeling like things are heating up and don't feel too confident waiting the 7ish weeks I've been seeing some people say it took to get the letter. Each time I called CS I've been sent on a run around to call the Dublin office then the US office and then sent back to the Dublin office. I was given the dedicated GME +44 800 3823 3823 number but that and any UK number is unavailable to my region. Has anyone managed to speed up the process at all? If anyone could help at all I'll buy you a lambo.
