Hey everyone, I'm looking to buy this tasty dip and get more GameStop shares. As the new calendar year has rolled over, I have more contribution room towards my tfsa.

I'm an xx holder and I am very close to becoming a xxx holder. Previously I bought all my GameStop shares through my TFSA, when I heard about Drs, I transferred my shares to questrade as TD took weeks, while the other was only 5 business days.

When I Drsd my tfsa shares it was required to withdraw them from my tfsa. I know it's possible to Drs IRA shares, wondering if it's possible to DRS tfsa shares.

Please let me know what is possible, along with the best broker as well. Thanks!
