Alright, people cribbing and crying about the scalpers of the latest GMERICA 1 NFT drop should calm your tits down. Hear me out, if we are all about price discovery, free market, supply and demand then this is nothing but that (convince me otherwise). So called "scalpers" are just traders at the end of the day. Sure, it feels unfair that you and I didn't get to buy even 1 of them due to errors and bugs but whoever got it just got lucky and had the money to spend. Now, they are just playing the supply and demand game. If you're crying about it then what's the point of price discovery and free markets. Dont pay them that much if you're so worried of "scalpers". Wait for it to either drop down or just watch it go up. It's all about price discovery and what people are willing to pay.

I'd encourage y'all to write to Gamestop about the errors and bugs in their recent drop.

Disclosure: I'm with majority of the folks, couldn't get my hands on a single one of them NFTs.
