After watching the action on the other stock, the BS on GME, and everything else the last year and half, I have no further equity holdings of any kind. I will exit the stock "market" completely after this. I'll use the coming downturn in reale state to buy houses and become a landlord. I will recommend my kids do the same. This has been quite a lesson. It's all rigged, they socialize losses, cheat whenever possible, then use Fed money to pay themselves bonuses. Enough red pills to make all things clear and a bit sad. I will HODL to zero or phonenumber... as long as I can take a few with me.
