Honest Question regarding Stock Split:

Hypothesis:

We all know that gme will moon and will bring our tendies, but in doing so wreck the entire financial market and subsequently economy. What if treasury and FED forced RC into a deal with the DTCC and Citadel to split the stock, so that the newly created shares can be used to close out any FTDs floating in the DTCC system? The deal could maybe include not sending hitmen after RC or maybe giving Gamestop some more capital, but in the end, the goal of stock split would be to make new shares to close out the fails to deliver. This could be one reason why its taking so long to actually split the stock. Its cuz the DTCC system is fucked and they need some wrinkle brains to figure this mess out.

Anyway, DRS.

Cheers

Posting here cuz im poor and dont have enough k*rma for our valhalla halls
