So, I work installing electrical gear in various data centers. Usually, I shit you now, they're computers that store and process pornog. Humans watch toooo much pornog.

Anyways, I had to work today and it was at one of the NYSE data centers. I've put the supercomputers into various brokerages, and I didn't even know it! New York bellion, J.P. Morgan, the actual stonk exchange.

So with my overtime at home he NYSE today, I'm throwing 12 hours time and a half at GameStop. Let's fucking go.

It really makes me laugh that it's mostly porno. If that's the case, all my work in datacenters are for the SEC.

Supercomputers for trading and porno. Right up their alley.
