I noticed a comment yesterday that the NFT marketplace does not allow selling. I searched the terms of service and it seems to be the case.

"5. About the Services.

[...]At this time, you cannot purchase, trade, sell or otherwise transfer NFTs on the Site."

"8. Acceptable Use Policy and GME Entertainment's Enforcement Rights. You agree not to do any of the following:

[...]

"(p) Sell or attempt to sell NFTs or other digital assets on our Site;"

Is this just a case of "not yet, but you can soon," or is the marketplace going to be different than I had been assuming (an alternative to OpenSea)?
