I have my tinfoil hat wrapped around my head real tight for my conspiracy. I work for a third party distribution company that so happened to work with GameStop(which I thought that was dope from the orientation). I over heard they were closing down an entire warehouse that was pretty much just for GameStop supply. I looked online to see if there was any job openings for the GameStop warehouse (and mind you, I live close to the area they're supposedly going to open in), and I didn't see anything pop up. So maybe that can be an announcement too at the shareholder meeting? Also, I'm really curious what they're gonna be paying lol. Thank for the read
