My friend...this is the last thing that I am going to say to you on this topic. To you. To everyone else watching and reading this right now...pay close attention to me right fucking now.

If you REALLY believe in MOASS in the way that I do. With what is happening with $GME. If you REALLLY love this fucking stock like I do because you see the potential of this company....

Then my dear friend - taxes should be the LAST mother FUCKING thing on your god damn mind right now.

If taxes are at the forefront of ANY of your BRAINS right now - then get then kindly:

GET THE FUCK OFF OF THIS GOD DAMN HILL!!!!
