It has become painfully clear as of late that **EVERYONE** is in on this. The Government, SEC, DTCC, Clearing houses, all MM, all Brokers, Media, etc... Nobody wants a repeat of 2008 on their watch. We have seen with our own eyes that **THEY** all have a pass to lie and cheat unopposed at the expense of retail and at the same time saying they are helping retail. I guess retail means their own investments. They have been literally breaking every rule and law right out in plain site on a daily basis since Jan 2021. Hell they even ramped it up after the new rules by the SEC came into play. I said on ST when the rules were being proposed that they were not for the current situation but were for after the **SHFs** got themselves out of this mess, that they would be givin a pass to defuse this atom bomb they created. Don't count on anyone outside the Ape community to help us, **we stand alone**. I totally believe we come out on top but think it will take some time. I am prepared to hold as long as it takes because I believe our GOOD cause will overcome their EVIL one in the end. Stay strong and patient GME Apes, we will WIN this war!!!
