I like his yt channel, watch it daily (until now) but his latest video bashes GME. He makes no attempt at TA, but doesn't explain why. He makes no mention of the future of the company, RC, the metaverse, nothing, just talked about past fundamentals. He claims that shorts cover sideways because they buy slowly? He immediately deleted my comment about how easy it is to hide SI and how 90% of all the transactions are buys. I really liked his channel too.
