So I have been asked to come onto a podcast and talk about a few things. I only have an hour to discuss the following:

1. Cryptocurrency
2. How can I explain what an NFT is in an unbiased way? When most people hear the term NFT, the immediately want to shut it down. This is important to explain in order to keep GameStop from being demonized.
3. Gamestop and Why is it Reddit famous?
4. The Stock Market and related crime

Could anyone provide links to some important DD? I could use a curated list of the most easy to understand DD to explain to someone without knowledge of stocks, what exactly is going on with the stock market and some of the crimes going on. I don't think I can mention names or anything, but right now I'm putting together dates to make a timeline of events and I leave in 3 hours.

I have a good amount of knowledge over the situation, but I want input from the community.

Anything you guys think is important, comment it and I'll fit in whatever information is top voted.
