Was thinking, while looking at my kids birthday cake and number 13 on it, how time fucking flies...I remember like it was yesterday wheb I changes his shitty smelly diapers. No, I dont miss those days btw, or smell for that matter.

And ofc, at one moment my Gamestop shares crossed my mind. For 36rd time that day.

What if, I mean I sure dont fucking want it to happen, but what if this fuckery and can kicking goes on for many more years, fuck even decades, and I die without passing the rights to my kids or anyone I care about. Yea I know what youre thinking you bastards, my shares will join infinity pool etc.

But just think about it as a possibility, if many of us old and bold silverbacks dont get to live to see the myass happening, would be fucking shame to take our millions with us under ground.

I will do this, and I advise you all who didnt, to do it aswell. Make sure if not you, someone you love gets that fucking money instead. Cos lifes a bitch, and we got no fucking clue when it ends, like we have no fucking clue when will Mooass happen. Could be tommorrow, but then again, could be the day after tommorrow. So, buy, hold, drs and make sure you pass them on of you pass away.

This is a dark theory and not very optimistic I know, but we better be ready for all scenarios.

Cheers, my hairy, swingng red butted brothers and sisters!
